RECORD OF EVENTS.

By orders from Hd. Qrs. Dept. (this) the 14 Brig. (5 Div. Dept. (this) I left Clarksville, Tenn. on Dec. 1861 with some thirty men selected out of divers companies out of our own Regt. and proceeded at once to the Rail Road Bridge across Whippoorwill Creek on the Memphis Branch R.R. near Russellville, Logan Co., Ky. which Bridge I was ordered to destroy. Reached with my command the above-named station, on the 3d day of March a little before (corr.) Christmas daylight. The Confederates guarding the bridge refusing to surrender, a short but severe conflict ensued during which we killed on the spot two of their men, wounded severely two more taking the balance to the number of nine prisoners. We although hotly pursued by overwhelming forces of the enemy landed with them safe at Calhoon Ky, On the 6th day after our departure during which we made a forced march of near two hundred miles, one hundred miles through an enemy's country - We burned about said bridge to ashes.

Since then we changed station along with the Regt. Our last move being from Calhoon, Ky. to this place.

In the enlistment of recruits no erasures or interlineations will be allowed, and the recruit must sign his name in full. Erasures or interlineations in all other cases must be accompanied by the necessary initials of the superintendent and the recruiting officer to the Adjutant-General, and are to be explained for the information of the officer who passes upon the case.

Minors between the ages of 16 and 21 years may be enlisted, but the written consent of parent or guardian must be given at the time of enlistment. (See Act of March 3, 1863, Section 1, and Circular No. 22, A. G. O., 1863.) The Regimental and Company Officers are prohibited from receiving any recruit who they have reason to believe is a deserter from the military service of the United States. (See Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13.)

NOTE 2.—An enlistment is void in all cases, unless the recruit can read, write, and understand the English language, and has the requisite physical qualifications. A minister of any religious denomination, who is duly and regularly ordained as a minister of the Gospel according to the rules and usages of his denomination, and who has been for one year next preceding his enlistment in charge of a church, congregation, or society, is exempt from military duty. (See Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13.) A person claiming to be exempt from military duty as a member of the Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, must furnish a certificate from the Clerk of the Monthly Meeting of which he is a member, stating that he is such member, and that he is conscientiously opposed to the bearing of arms. (See Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13.) A person claiming to be exempt from military duty as a member of any religious sect or denomination organized and existing at the time of the passage of the Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13, and whose religious belief forbids participation in war in any form, must furnish a certificate from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, or other Court of Record, of the county in which he resides, stating that he is such member, and that he is conscientiously opposed to the bearing of arms. (See Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13.) A person claiming exemption from military duty on account of alienage must furnish a certificate from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, or other Court of Record, of the county in which he resides, stating that he has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and has taken the oath required by law. (See Act of July 17, 1862, Section 13.) A person claiming exemption from military duty on account of having previously served as a soldier in the military service of the United States must furnish a certificate from the proper officer, showing the fact, the time of service, and the cause of discharge. A minister of religion is not exempt from military duty, unless he has been regularly ordained as a minister of the Gospel, and has charge of a church or congregation. A person who has been convicted of any infamous crime is not competent to be enlisted in the military service of the United States. The fact of conviction of any such crime may be proved by the record or by the certificate of the officer having charge of the records of the court in which the conviction was had. A person who has been convicted by a court-martial of desertion is not competent to be enlisted in the military service of the United States. The fact may be proved by the record of the court-martial, or by the certificate of the officer having charge of the records of the court. Note 1.—This bond will be used for both enlistments and reenlistments in the Army. In the case of reenlistment, the soldier will be mustered in at once—one commissioner may muster, and one person may attest the signature of the soldier. Persons in the military service of the United States cannot be accepted as bondsmen. Bounty.—1. Thomas Ryan, being duly Sworn makes the following Statement

I was at the corner of Green and Hancock Streets in Gilmores Saloon between ten & eleven Oclock P.M. Friday Nov 11th. 1864 at which there Henry Billings private of the 26th Regt Ky Infty came into the Saloon and called for something to drink. Billings was partly dressed in Citizens clothes he had on a Soldier coat. The Bar Keeper asked them what they would have they replied that they wanted Whiskey. The Bar Keeper told them that that he could not sell them Whiskey as they had on Soldier clothes. Billings Swore that he was discharged and demanded that he would have Whiskey or Blood. "By God" I went to him and told him that I was a Civil Officer and told him that ~~that~~ he must be quiet, he replied that he did not care a damn for any Officer and then in haste and made a Cut at me which I warded off and then arrested him, I then turned him over to the Chief of Police. from which he escaped, and was afterwards arrested by the Patrol Guard—

Major General Burnside,
London

We rush to call your your attention To General order 11 1864 for a few minutes, we have examined the proceedings of the Court Martial which Convened at Flemingsburg Ky pursuant to Special order 100. We notice that John Boyd private Company E 26th Kentucky volunteer Infantry was found guilty of desertion, &c
We have but one word To say in his behalf we were informed and believe that said Boyd was by the Operation that he was only mus tered into the ~~United~~ State service and that he could not be carried out of the State though The impression was convinced the effect upon his mind was the same as True. If fact was, at Cockrom Ky during the time the 26th was being organized we were at that time informed much other right to which we Swore into the United States, The 26th Regt at that time was not. and we are informed they never could after Young Boyd deserted. We are in hopes when fact were to come to Cincinnati and get his Case in mercy we petition for a modification of his punishment

Sir

By your order we are informed that John Boyd a prisoner in the 26th Ky Infantry is shortly to be shot for desertion. under military discipline it is likely this order would be carried into effect under ordinary circumstances. But under the present circumstances attending this case we the neighbours and acquaintances of the young man his mother & sisters would say to you that said Boyd is a very illiterate young man just grown up and never had many advantages of Education & is entirely dependent upon this young man for support. we the undersigned have and have ever since the commencement of this unfortunate war been opposed to secession & cast off we are advised that the imposition was practised upon this young man by designing persons who enticed him into the service of the Confederate States & he could not be returned from Ky. we would therefore most respectfully and earnestly petition your Excellency to grant a pardon to the said John Boyd & restore him to his mother & sisters. If you can not grant a pardon we would most respectfully and earnestly petition your Excellency to grant a reprieve for a short time that we may have an opportunity of laying the matter before the President of the United States.

If known, you [illegible] that you could give him
